Collector of South Kanara.

The Secretary to the Board,

Land Revenue & Settlement,

Madras

Sir,

Allowances--Pension--Arrears--Payment--recommended.

Item No 18 at p 83 of the list for

An annual pension of Rs.1-5-7 is payable to Shankernaraina Bhatta under P.P.O. No. 647 dated 9.1.1906. The pension remains undrawn from fasli 1334 onwards and this is said to be due to his illness and certain domestic troubles. The pension is for the distribution of water to the people on the day of the annual Jatra of the Panchalingeshwar Dev. of Vittal. This service is reported to have been performed during the time that the allowance remained undrawn.

As the allowance is only a trifling amount, and as services connected with it are reported to have been performed, I recommend that the last 8 years' allowance may be paid subject to the usual deduction.

Your obedient servant,

Gawne

Collector.

Allowances--Aravattige pension--Puttur Taluk--Payment.
Ref: Board's reference A. 1750/33-1 dated 14th June 1933.

As stated in my letter of the 1st June the allowance is in the nature of a jari brahmadya inam for distribution of water to pilgrims during the annual feast of the Panchalingeshwar Dev at Vittal in Puttur Taluk. The question of the maintenance of the institution to which the pilgrims come does not therefore arise.

P. R. S. C. 67 (1) (7) contemplates readmission of claims to allowances which have not been sought for more than six years The pension is in arrears from fasli 1334.

The petitioner has already explained that he could not draw the allowance due to illness and domestic trouble I have no reason to believe that there was neglect on the part of the petitioner; the villagers reported that the water was distributed on the jatra day.

Your obedient servant
